Speaking at Battle Creck, Mich., Sep. tember 30, inst, Theodore Roosevelt said;

"I have been asked what I would have done had I been President when | the Lusitania was torpedoed.

"I would have instantly taken possession of every German ship interned in this country and then I would have said: 'Now we'll discuss, not what we will give his RECORD OF DEEDS DONE back."

THAT WOULD HAVE MEANT

It would have been a challenge to the German nation to a trial at arms. It would have been a violation of ev-ery principle of neutrality, and at a time, with all Europe under arms, when this country was the trustee of and the only nation capable of uphold ing neutral rights.

The seizure itself would have been an act of war, just as the seignre of German interned ships by Portugal was regarded as an act of war and was followed by an immediate declaration of war by Germany against

Following the same line of war talk, speaking at Lewiston, Maine, August 31, last, Mr. Roosevelt said:

"The policies of Americanism and preparedness, taken together, mean applied patriotism. There should be controlled to the property of the Demorelation of policy and arminisms.

Must we not agree with President Wilson when speaking at Shadow Lawn on September 20 fast he said

"Am I not right that we must draw the conclusion that if the Republican party is put into power at the next election, our foreign policy will be radically changed?

"I cannot draw any other inference. All our present foreign policy is wrong. they say, and if it is wrong and they are men of conscience they must change it.

"And if they are going to change it.
in what direction are they going to change? THERE IS ONLY ONE

Wilkes-Barre Miners Strong for Wilson-Others Bolt the Republican Party.

"If you love me, vote for Hughes," Is an injunction that proved too hard a strain on the liking that the 75,000 miners of the Wilkes-Barre district once had for Colonel Boosevelt. He tried it on them, in what was intended to be the biggest labor meeting of the Hughes campaign, and the result was

Not only did the crowd listen to the Colonel's speech in stony silence, but Wilson enthusiasm threatened to be-come so boisterous that Mayor Kosek called out the State Constability to guarantee Mr. Roosevelt a courteous reception. The Mayor had denied the miners a permit to give a Wilson pa-rade on the night of the Colonel's visit, and, when they attempted to violate his order, directed the armed and mounted Constabulary to drive them from the streets.

Colonel Roosevelt's closest friend in Wilkes-Barre, Father J. J. Curran went out with a reception committee to meet the visitor, but announced that, friendship aside, he had left the Republican party, and was supporting
